Small Group Peer Review Practice

In small groups:

1. define the criteria for yourselves
2. review the samples and find good and bad examples of each criterion
3. offer an overall summary and set of recommendations for each sample

NOTE: The samples are not direct translations. The goal is to practice peer review for this kind of project.

The '&' is in red. This could represent that the couple may be working together or are a couple who have fallen in love. This illustrates that the film genre may be horror as well as action.

White background could represent the innocence in the relationship which may be hidden because of their job profession.

He is wearing a suit to show he may be profession at what he does, or could be undercover as he looks smart but has a gun.

Black dress with a split shows her feminine side but the split of the dress and her pose may show her sexual side. Her facial expression looks quite serious and is again she is looking directly at the audience.

Brad Pitt has a gun in his hand which shows the film contains violence. Also his pose on his face is directly looking at the audience which may represent that it is strictly business. He also on the same level as Angelina Jolie which may show they are equal but different gender.

Her gun on her leg shows that she may be undercover and may have a secret masculine side. The gun also illustrates that the film is an action film.

Movie Certificate.

Website on the poster is useful because the audience can get more information about the film or see the trailer online.
